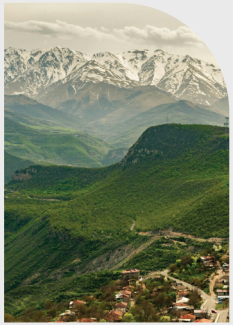
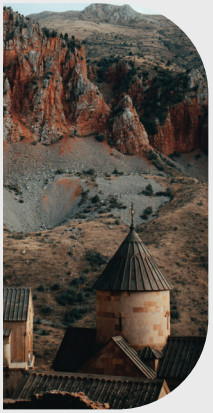
Welcome to Armenia:
EIU Guest Guide





Arriving in Armenia

Getting to the "Land of Stones" is easier than ever.

By Air:

Most international guests arrive at Zvartnots International Airport (EVN), located about 12 km from Yerevan center. It's modern, efficient, and open 24/7.

By Train:

There is a scenic international train operating between Tbilisi (Georgia) and Yerevan. Perfect for those who enjoy slow travel.

By Car/Bus:

International bus routes connect Yerevan with Tbilisi and Tehran. If driving, ensure you have an international permit; Armenian roads offer stunning mountain views but require cautious driving.

About Armenia
and Yerevan

Armenia is one of the world's oldest civilizations, and Yerevan, the "Pink City," is older than Rome!

The Vibe:

Yerevan is a safe, walkable city known for its outdoor café culture, jazz clubs, and the beautiful pink tuff stone architecture.

Language:

Armenian is the official language, but English and Russian are widely spoken among the youth and in the hospitality sector.

Eurasia International University (EIU)

Brief History

Founded in 1996, EIU has evolved into a leading private institution in Armenia. It was among the first to adopt the ECTS (European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System), making it a natural hub for Erasmus+ exchange.

The Venue

Located in the Kanaker-Zeytun district of Yerevan, the campus offers:

- Modern, tech-equipped classrooms.
- A rich library and comfortable co-working spaces.
- A vibrant international community of students from over 10 countries.

Must-Visit Points of Interest

Armenia is an open-air museum.
Don’t miss these:

Garni & Geghard:

A 1st-century Pagan Temple and a UNESCO-listed monastery carved into a mountain.

Lake Sevan & Sevanavank:

The "Blue Pearl" of Armenia; visit the monastery on the peninsula for breathtaking views.

Dilijan:

Known as "Armenian Switzerland" —lush forests and the historic Sharambeyan street.

Tatev Monastery:

Take the "Wings of Tatev" (the world’s longest reversible aerial tramway) to reach this 9th-century masterpiece.

Restaurant & Food Suggestions

Lavash Restaurant:

For an authentic, upscale introduction to Armenian cuisine (try the Tolma).

Sherep:

The first restaurant with an open kitchen where you can watch bread being baked.

Dalan:

A hidden gem with a beautiful courtyard, perfect for a quiet lunch.

Tun Lahmajo:

Great for a quick, delicious, and budget-friendly traditional meal.
